500 SAMPLE RUGS.

We intended it as a sort of "Jubilee Special," but it has developed into something more. We have been able to buy the sample lines of Rugs of several mills, over 500 of them—and what we paid—well, you can judge that it was little when we say that you may select and pay half of what they are worth.

For the summer floors—for veranda or cottage—for the house all the year round—for use over matting or on polished floors—the opportunity is of the money-saving order, such as occasionally is made possible in large merchandising.

That we may better show the line we have annexed the large show room on F street, in the Metzerott building, for the overflow.

W. B. MOSES & SONS.

The Attention of Investors

Is called to the property recently known as

Graceland Cemetery,

Situated at the intersection of Maryland and Florida avenues, H and 15th streets northeast and Benning's and Bladensburg roads, Washington, D. C.

Only a small portion of this tract was ever used as a cemetery. On account of the rapid growth of the city in the immediate neighborhood of Congress, by an act passed August 3, 1884, prohibiting the further interment of bodies, and vested the title in the five undivided trustees, who were empowered and directed to remove all bodies interred therein and to sell and convey the said tract of land. The trustees, having removed all evidences of a cemetery, now offer for sale the entire tract, comprising some 30 acres, more or less.

The area, the location and the proximity to rapid transit, make it one of the largest and most desirable tracts now remaining undivided within the city limits. Extensive retail business and residential properties exist immediately adjoining. Two of the main roads leading to the suburbs from the entire tract. The Columbia Electric Railroad and its continuation to Maryland and Chesapeake Beach extend along one of the fronts. Both the Pennsylvania and Baltimore and Ohio Railroads are within easy hauling distance for business purposes.

Scaled bids for the purchase of the entire property, marked "Proposed for Graceland Cemetery Tract," will be received until and opened at the office of the President of the National Bank of Washington, D. C., at ONE O'CLOCK P.M., WEDNESDAY, JUNE TWENTY-FIRST, 1899. Each bid must be accompanied by a certified check for one thousand dollars, which will be immediately returned to the unsuccessful bidder. Terms: One-third cash, balance in one and two years, with interest at five per cent per annum, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser. Deferred payments to be secured by first deed of trust on the property sold. The right is reserved to reject any and all bids.

For further information apply to the undersigned.
